EVERYONE PLAYS

The Southtowns Family YMCA Co-Ed Floor Hockey League is a 10-week league, open to boys and girls in grades 1-6. The program is designed so that every child has the chance to play. Coaches focus on teaching fair play and good sportsmanship as they help each participant develop and enhance their hockey skills.

Girls and boys will be placed into age appropriate teams by grade level. Teams will participate in a 45-minute practice during the week followed by a 45-minute game on Saturday. Participants will be informed of their practice day and time by their coach.

Each player will receive:

- Team Jersey
- End of season award

Saturday Game Times:

- Grades 1 & 2 11:00 am - 1:00 pm
- Grades 3 & 4 1:00-3:00 pm
- Grades 5 & 6 3:00-5:00 pm

Special Requests:

To assist with your busy schedule, special requests will be considered to allow siblings and friends to be placed on the same team.

KEY DATES

GET INVOLVED

Parent Volunteers: It is our goal to provide programs that give parents and children the opportunity to strengthen their relationship. We encourage every family to take an active role in the league. Below are several ways you can get involved.

Head Coach: Lead your child's team on the court during games and practices. As head coach, you choose your team's practice day. You also have the opportunity to participate in our coaches clinic.

Assistant Coach:

You provide support to the head coach during games and practices. You are also invited to participate in our coaches clinic.

Score Keeper/

Time Keeper:

You keep score and time during games on Saturdays.
